Lent in February and March

Our Lenten gatherings began on Ash Wednesday. Services will continue every Wednesday Evening through March 28.

Remember that we will begin each gathering with a soup meal beginning at 6:00 p.m. We hope you will join us! All families are invited to attend our Lenten Services with their children and youth. Following the Soup Meal, all children and youth are invited to join together for a lesson relating to the worship themes, discussion time, and crafts.

Palm Sunday / Passion Sunday services will be Sunday, March 25 at the 8:30 a.m. Lutheran service as well as the 11:05 a.m. UCC service. Please note that these services will not include Holy Communion.

Holy Week

Wednesday, March 28, 5:30 p.m. – Way of the Cross and Soup Meal. There will be about 20 experimental sites set up across the sanctuary. Each has a scripture reading and a short response. Each has something to “do” to steer our spiritual response to the reading. The readings themselves follow Jesus through his mission, to the cross and beyond, and invite us into the story. A child friendly event will also be offered for the children to experience the journey.

Maudy Thursday, March 29, 6:30 p.m. – Ziegels Church will observe Maudy Thursday with a Union Agape Meal (a form of “Love Feast”) in the Fellowship Hall. The meal will be arranged pot luck supper, followed by an informal Communion around the tables in the Fellowship Hall and a teaching for children (and adults) about the Stripping of the Altar. Finally, we will devotionally process upstairs to the church sanctuary where all are welcome to participate in the Stripping of the Altar. (We will not be having a Passover Sedar. The purpose is to experience the first Communion in its original meal setting. This will be a “family-friendly” event in which children of all ages may participate.)

The Agape Love Feast will begin at 6:30 p.m. We will be serving baked chicken, and we will need side dishes of vegetables and potatoes, and desserts. If you are planning to attend, please let Lori know how many people will be coming and what you can bring. We need to have numbers for attendance for the food preparation.

Good Friday Worship will be held March 30 at 12:00 Noon and 7:00 p.m. The Good Friday 12:00 Noon service will be a meditation on the passion of Jesus focused on eight different objects which will be presented in the church. This meditation is patterned on a “Stations of the Cross” service. Scripture passages will be read, a hymn will be sung, and a prayer will be offered relating to each object. The whole service will last no more than 45-50 minutes. The focus on objects will make it easier for children to relate.

“Tenebrae” services have been conducted on Good Friday throughout the history of the Christian Church. “Tenebrae” is the Latin word which means “shadows.” During Tenebrae services, we commemorate the deepening of the sky portrayed by the gospel writers at the hour of Jesus’ death. In a wider context, we remember how the story of Christ’s betrayal, denial, abandonment, beating, mocking and execution is a story filled with symbolic shadows as well. It is a story into which we are thrown, often in the roles of the many characters who interact with Jesus.

On Good Friday Evening, at our Tenebrae Service, we will share readings from all four gospels and a reading from the prophet Isaiah. Following each reading, the reader will extinguish a candle, symbolic of the coming gloom. We will respond to each reading by singing selected hymn verses, hoping to discover ourselves within the story. It can be a deeply spiritual and moving service that prepares our hearts for the new dawn of Christ’s resurrection on Easter morning when the light of God’s renewing love will burn away all shadows.

On Easter morning, April 1, we will celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord. Services will be held at:

- 6:00 a.m. – Union Sunrise Service begins in the cemetery then moves to the sanctuary for worship and communion by Intinction

- 8:30 a.m. – Lutheran Festive Worship with Holy Communion.
- 11:05 a.m. – UCC Festive Worship with Holy Communion

Please be with us on this day as we celebrate the risen Christ!

A Message from Lori.....

"She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved.....Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first.....Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside.....the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed – for until then they still hadn't understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead". (John 20:2-9, NLT)

I love that John refers to himself as "the one whom Jesus loved". It gives me so much hope and confidence in God's forgiving love. For the better part of three years, these twelve men, who had given up their homes and families and careers, had followed Jesus. They heard him preach and pray, they saw him perform miracles, and they saw him exhausted. They saw the divine Jesus and the human Jesus. And still, until the end, they doubted, they questioned, they stumbled, and they fell. Jesus had seen them at their worst, tired and disbelieving. When push came to shove, they scattered. When Jesus needed them, they were gone.

At times, it is easy for us to think that the disciples seem to be a group of people who just walk around with their eyes and ears closed to what is happening around them. Of course, we know the whole story and see the big picture – from beginning to end.

Without a doubt, Jesus loved each one of those disciples, even Judas Iscariot. He knew their faults and shortcomings, when they didn't even know their weaknesses themselves. And He also knew their hearts, and how long it would take and how difficult it would be to help them recognize their God-given gifts. And that is why I love that John refers to himself as "the one whom Jesus loved". John was confident in his relationship with Jesus. After everything....the doubts, the fears, the betrayals, Jesus loved the disciples and John was proud to one of the ones whom Jesus loved. And we should be proud as well. We are more like those disciples than we would care to admit. We trip, we stumble, and we fall on our faces.

We can have the confidence of John. I can say "Lori, the one whom Jesus loves, is having a hard time dealing with deadlines today" or I can say "Lori, the one whom Jesus loves, is sad today" or "Lori, the one whom Jesus loves, is blessed beyond her wildest dreams". And you can say all those things too. Just try it. It feels wonderful and it is so true, for each and every one of us.

Jesus loves you and nothing you do will ever change that. Jesus loves you and nothing you do will ever change that.

In Peace and Joy,

Lori

Mailbag

Dear Ziegels Family,

Thank you so much for your kindness shown to our family upon the passing of Annamae Meck. We appreciate all of the cards, visits, and support you all gave to her and our entire family. Ziegels Church meant the world to her, and she loved baking pies for the church events. One of her favorite places to sit in the church in her later years was on the small church pew at the elevator door on the first floor waiting to talk to everyone who came down from upstairs. And she enjoyed every one of those conversations. A special thank you to Pastor Jeff who visited her at Keystone Villa and the Topton Home, and on his very last visit to her when we had a beautiful family circle surrounding her singing hymns and speaking Pa. Dutch.

God Bless you all.

Love, Deb and Glenn Hofmann, and all of our families.
